

“Four Seasons at Weatherby Homeowners Association has used SG&G for a number of years to provide legal expertise, builder transition guidance and collection services. Our experience has been very positive and we consider the firm results oriented and cost effective. When we were searching for an attorney firm, we were seeking a reliable, accessible and responsive firm and we found it with SG&G. We would highly recommend the firm to other associations”.

*Jim Rondinone
HOA President
On behalf of the Board*